- How to Enter: Entrants must register their beer using the online registration system linked on bbbo.nfbl.org, which automatically updates the competition database.
- Bottles: To ensure the anonymity of entrants, submit three bottles, 10 to 12 fluid ounces, brown or green color with no paper or inked labels, or any other identifying or distinguishing marks on the bottle. Raised brewery lettering on import beer bottles or beers with national distribution are acceptable but not encouraged. Remove or blur beyond distinction any identifying marks from bottle caps. Solid color bottle caps are acceptable. Caps with colors other than these finishes may be rejected at the discretion of the Judge Director. Caps with identifiable markings that make them unique as determined by the Judge Director with visible symbols, writing, etching, coating, etc. will be disqualified. If there is any doubt that a cap is compliant, it is recommended to apply a coat of opaque black (sharpie) ink to all surfaces of the caps. Grolsch-style bottles will not be accepted.
- Bottle forms: The online registration system will generate forms for use on each of your bottled entries. A fully completed, legible bottle identification form must accompany each entry bottle. If you forget to print out the labels when entering, you can print out labels with the information that you will receive via email confirming your entries. Bottle ID forms must be affixed to each bottle with a rubber band. Do not tape forms to bottles. Forms may be duplicated. Incomplete or illegible forms may result in disqualification.

- Entries may be disqualified from the competition by the Organizer for failure to comply with any of the official rules.
